8th Annual

Anti-Racist Pedagogy Across the Curriculum (ARPAC) Workshop

The purpose of the award-winning ARPAC project is to provide intensive training for faculty committed to incorporating anti-racist pedagogy into courses across disciplines and across campus. ARPAC consists of an annual faculty development workshop and follow-up sessions which support faculty in their teaching, and foster a community of educators committed to anti-racist praxis.

The workshop will be led by nationally recognized scholars Emily Drew (Willamette University) and Victor Rodríguez (California State University, Long Beach), educators Amelita Ortega (Columbia University and Smith College) and Matthea Marquart (Columbia University), and Core Organizer Trainers from Crossroads Anti-Racism Organizing and Training, Joy Bailey, and Jessica Velázquez Torres.

To register for ARPAC, please visit our website: http://www.stcloudstate.edu/arpac

June 11-15 and 18-19, 2018

Minneapolis Community and Technical College,
Minneapolis, MN. 1501 Hennepin Ave. Minneapolis, MN. 55403

The workshop includes sessions on:

- Analyzing and Understanding Systemic Racism
- Anti-Racist Pedagogy in Higher Education
- Anti-Oppression Strategies in the Online Classroom

The workshop is open to teaching faculty from all higher education institutions.

The ARPAC Workshop is sponsored by Minnesota State through a Multi-Campus Collaboration Grant; Community Anti-Racism Education Initiative and Multicultural Resource Center at St. Cloud State University; Division of Equity and Inclusion, Academic Affairs, and Center for Teaching and Learning at Minneapolis Community and Technical College; and Southwest Minnesota State University.

For more information: Iyekiwapiwin Darlene St. Clair, dstclair@stcloudstate.edu, 320-308-6476 or Debra Leigh, dlleigh@stcloudstate.edu, 320-308-2214

St. Cloud State University is committed to legal affirmative action, equal opportunity, access and diversity of its campus community. [Link]